Dear Freshman Summer Start Student,

Congratulations on your acceptance into the Freshman Summer Start Program! Your next step is to select your summer course preferences. This document includes the list of classes available to you during FSSP as well as the steps to register.

Next Steps

1. Review the Schedule of Classes (read the course descriptions and consider which classes you would like to take).
2. Complete the online Course Preference Form, sent to FSSP students upon admission into the program.

If you are having trouble accessing or submitting the Course Preference Form, please send an email to fssp@summer.ucsb.edu.

Course Registration Process

After reviewing the Schedule of Classes and utilizing the additional resources on pages 4-11, you will need to submit your course preferences through the online FSSP Course Preference Form. When completing the Course Preference Form, please consider the following:

- The online Course Preference Form linked within your FSSP acceptance email requires you to indicate how many units you would like to register for, and asks you to submit 6 unique course preferences. These preferences are used to craft your FSSP schedule that amounts to the number of units you requested.
- FSSP advising staff will make every attempt to register you in top course preferences. However, given scheduling conflicts, course space, and other considerations, this might not always be possible. Please check your UCSB email regularly, as FSSP advising staff might need to contact you via email with clarifying questions or to request additional course preferences from you.
- If applicable, please be sure to send your official test scores (SAT, ACT, SAT Subject tests, TOEFL, AP, and/or IB) immediately to UCSB if you have not already done so. Scores must be submitted directly from the testing agency.
- If you request a course that you're currently fulfilling a prerequisite for (or recently completed at the end of your senior year), we will need to place you into a filler course to help you maintain eligibility to participate in FSSP. After your official AP/IB/SAT/ACT scores have confirmed your placement, FSSP advising staff will adjust your schedule accordingly where possible.
- You will receive email communication from FSSP advising staff once your preliminary schedule is complete with instructions about how to view it on GOLD.
- As you participate in orientation this summer and sign up for your Fall 2024 courses, please be mindful of the courses that you listed on your preference form for FSSP, as you cannot be registered for the same course during two separate quarters.
- The online Course Preference Form can only be submitted once. As such, please be thoughtful about your course choices as you complete it. If you would like to make changes to your preliminary schedule, you will need to submit the FSSP Schedule Change Request form (this form can also only be submitted once). These requests will be accommodated only as time and space permit, and submission of this form does not guarantee that your schedule will be changed. Please email fssp@summer.ucsb.edu to request the FSSP Schedule Change Request form.
- You will learn how to make changes to your class schedule during orientation and will have access to make adjustments to your own FSSP schedule on GOLD on the evening of August 2, 2024, prior to the start of classes.

Schedule of Classes

Many of the courses listed in this guide will help you fulfill specific General Education (GE) or pre-major requirements. Many will also fulfill Special Subject area requirements unique to your College. You will also have the opportunity to register in FSSP Seminars and Courses that have been created for, and are only available to, FSSP students. This document will describe these seminars and courses, followed by the schedule of summer classes. For detailed information about degree requirements, advanced placement scores, and UCSB graduation requirements, refer to the section below.

We are very happy that you've decided to participate in FSSP, and we look forward to connecting with you this summer!

Sincerely,
The Freshman Summer Start Program Team

Writing and Math Placement Information

Writing and Math Courses

During FSSP, students may be able to take either a Writing or a Math course to satisfy University requirements.

Writing Course

Writing 2: Available to FSSP students who have fulfilled the UC Entry Level Writing Requirement via one of the methods listed below.

English 10: This course is equivalent to Writing 50. Given that Writing 2 is a prerequisite for this course, English 10 will only be available to L&S FSSP students who have received a score of 4 on the AP English Language or English Composition exam. English 10 can be selected under "Writing" on the course preference form.

Notes on Writing Courses

Students are not guaranteed placement in a writing course during FSSP. FSSP Advising Staff will register students in the appropriate writing course when official test scores are available.

Students who would like to register in Writing 2 should indicate this course as a preference on their Course Preference Form. Students should only indicate that they would like to register in Writing 2 if they have satisfied/plan to satisfy the Entry Level Writing Requirement via one of the following methods prior to the start of the program.

- Score 3 or higher on the AP Seminar exam, the AP Research exam, or either of the AP English exams
- Score of 30 or higher on the ACT Combined English Language Arts (ELA) exam
- Score of 680 or higher on the SAT Evidence Based-Reading and Writing (EBRW) exam
- Score of 5 or higher on the International Baccalaureate (IB) higher level English A exam
- Score of 6 or higher on the International Baccalaureate (IB) standard level English A1 exam

Students who would like to register in English 10 should indicate this course as a preference on their Course Preference Form. In order to be registered in English 10, students will need to send official scores to UCSB as soon as possible.

International Students who are not eligible for Writing 2 will take the English Language Placement Exam that is typically offered in the fall. You can find additional information at: <https://www.ems.ucsb.edu/news/testing-dates>.

Notes on Math Courses (L&S only)

Engineering students please consult the College of Engineering Course Registration Information on page 7.

Math 34A: Students who choose Math 34A will be registered immediately, as no Math Placement Exam (MPE) is required.

Math 3A: Students interested in registering in Math 3A must take the Math Placement Exam (MPE) online at <https://math.ucsb.edu/undergrad/course-placement> unless they receive a score of 2 on the AP CALC AB test. If you are interested in registering in this course during the summer, you should complete the Math Placement Exam (MPE) prior to completing your online Course Preference Form for FSSP.

If you qualify for a math course higher than Math 3A because of AP/IB test scores, previous college experience, or by other means, please note that FSSP advising staff will not be able to register you until your official test scores have been received by UCSB. If you have questions about this, please email fssp@summer.ucsb.edu. For more information about all Math courses, please refer to the Mathematics Department website at math.ucsb.edu/undergrad.

Special Seminars and Courses

FSSP Common Course Interdisciplinary (INT) 95A

All students participating in FSSP will be registered in this 2-unit course — INT 95A The Modern Research University. The course is only available to FSSP students. This course introduces students to internationally recognized research currently being conducted on campus. As part of the course, students will meet faculty and learn about opportunities to become involved in undergraduate research during their time at UCSB. In small TA sections, graduate student mentors will further introduce students to all the opportunities and resources available to them on campus.

First Year Discovery Seminars

UC Santa Barbara offers an exciting educational opportunity for members of the freshman class — First Year Discovery Seminars. These small group seminars, with a maximum of twenty students, will be taught by faculty who have volunteered their time and effort because they want to teach students who are early in their UCSB careers. Facilitating student-faculty contact is one of the major goals of the First Year Discovery Seminar. Students have the opportunity to take up to two of the following First Year Discovery Seminars during FSSP:

INT 86FV Improving the Quality of Life of Older Adults With Dementia Using Virtual Reality (1 unit)

This Discovery Seminar will involve meeting in a group and discussing the behavioral research on older adults with dementia and how to communicate with them in ways that enhance their well-being and that of their caregivers. We are currently collecting data in almost all of the senior living communities in Santa Barbara (20 total in California and Boston), using virtual reality with older adults with dementia and their adult children who live at a distance. As a part of this seminar, you will learn how to use the virtual reality technology and how/why it can improve older adults' and their adult children's mental health and help them maintain their relationship. We will then take field trips into some of the local senior living communities where you can see the technology being used with older adults and their family members.

INT 86QV History of War (1 unit)

This seminar will explore the conceptualization of war in the western tradition from Antiquity to Modern Times.

INT 86SH Health and Wellness: Walk UCSB (1 unit)

Health & Wellbeing: Walk UCSB will introduce students to aspects of health and wellness while exploring UCSB through a series of walking activities.

Course Objectives: Learn important strategies for implementing healthy lifestyle behaviors.

1. Learn practical and applicable strategies for health and wellbeing.
2. Discover resources on campus that advocate wellness.
3. Find new ways to explore health routines within the context of a busy personal, student and professional life.

INT 86WH Language Learning & Teaching (1 unit)

What makes an effective language learner or language teacher? This course brings together current research in Education, Linguistics, and Language Departments to answer these questions. We will discuss theories of Second Language Acquisition and practices to build intercultural competence. If you are interested in language study, teaching, or international perspectives, and meeting others who share those interests, then this is the course for you!

INT 86VC Portraiture and Self in the Age of AI (1 unit)

"Portraiture and Self in the Age of AI" offers an academic exploration into the intersection of technology and identity. This course examines how photography, digital editing, and artificial intelligence shape self-representation and perception. Students will develop skills in capturing and editing images, while critically analyzing AI's role in redefining reality and self. The seminar culminates in creating a personal portfolio, reflecting each student's technical proficiency and philosophical insights on authenticity in the digital era. This course is an invitation to engage with the evolving narrative of self in our technologically advanced world.

INT 86WF Ethical Tech: Navigating the 'Should' in Innovation (1 unit)

In an era where technological advancements are occurring at an unprecedented rate, the course "Ethical Tech: Navigating the 'Should' in Innovation" offers a crucial perspective on the intersection of ethics and technology. This seminar invites students to embark on a thought-provoking journey, exploring not just the limitless possibilities of what they can create with technology, but more importantly, reflecting on whether they should create them.

Special Seminars and Courses

INT 86GG The Exploration of Identity & Art: Personal, Cultural, Familial, and Sexual (1 unit)

The exploration of identity continues to be a focus of contemporary artists. Examining how we create and recreate our internal and external selves allows us to better understand our interactions in personal, social and political arenas. In this interactive workshop, students will view work by various filmmakers, artists, and performers, and engage in lively discussions pertinent to their phase in life.

INT 86WA Writing as Mapping (1 unit)

In this course we will use the UCSB campus as inspiration for writing in order to explore how poetry and prose might be created in conversation with the many vibrant landscapes that comprise our campus. By focusing on the dynamic people, places, and things that surround us, we will create textual maps that investigate the interstices between our conceptual and embodied realms.

INT 86TY Exploration of the Physics Major: From Curious Freshman to Young Professionals (1 unit)

Whether you're just starting your path in physics or have a keen interest in the subject, this seminar is designed to equip you with tools and resources essential for your academic progression. Through interactive discussions and presentations, students will construct a comprehensive plan mapping out their course selections from freshman fall to senior spring. Additionally, participants will devise strategies for engaging in research opportunities. Led by instructor and guest speakers including current students and faculty members, this seminar offers a blend of discussion-based sessions and informative presentations. Students from other disciplines can also benefit from participating.

INT 86VL Imagining the Climate Crisis (1 unit)

In this seminar, we will be reading and discussing The Overstory by Richard Powers, which is a 2019 novel that takes up a range of environmental issues. We will be reading about 50 pages of this book, which won the Pulitzer Prize in Fiction, per week. Our goal will be to better understand the relationship that our species has to our planet and its life. While we will have a designated classroom, we will, weather permitting, generally be meeting outside, perhaps sitting on the grass.

INT 86NG Mathematics of Origami (1 unit)

This course combines the modern mathematical theory of origami with hands on explorations for students to come up with their own conjectures. Students work in groups and make connections. No prior experience with Origami required, no mathematical prerequisite.

INT 86WG Insights from Past (1 unit)

The focus of this seminar is to unravel and discuss the manifestation of ongoing climate changes in various parts of the Eco-systems. The seminar informs how our understanding of past climate changes improves and refine our general understanding of climate change impact and climate feedback mechanism. We will visit my lab (stable isotope geochemistry lab) and go to Goleta Beach to look at the sedimentary rocks and discuss what they tell us about past climate changes, sea level changes and land uplift.

Special Seminars and Courses

College of Letters and Science Honors Program Opportunities

Students in the Honors Program can begin to meet their first year honors experience requirement this summer by registering in these courses.

INT 86AA-ZZ (1 unit)

All discovery seminars count as an honors experience. See full list above.

Interdisciplinary Humanities Courses

INT 35LT Experiencing Shakespeare (8 units)

INT 37UD Utopian Dreaming: History, Science Fiction, and Isla Vista (5 units)

This course will examine the utopian dream through history, literature, philosophy, and public memory. Starting with a historical and philosophical background of the concepts, the course will then turn to focus more narrowly on our own planned community of Isla Vista. Students will engage with public history and memory to trace the ideals and the reality of our surrounding community. Finally, in the last part of the survey, students will look at the future, focusing first on fictional accounts of utopia and dystopias, before writing their own speculative fiction as a final project.

We are excited to announce that FSSP students are eligible to apply for an INT 37UD Scholarship! Scholarship application instructions will be provided upon course registration confirmation.

INT 37VR Religion and Technology (5 units)

With the aid of virtual reality (VR) headsets, this course takes place mostly in VR, but also via Zoom and in person. VR headsets will be lent to those who need them. Course introduces students to the complex interaction of religion and technology. Possible topics include religions based on new technologies, religious early adopters of technology, religion-based resistance to technology, ideas of the human that technology challenges and enables, utopian and dystopian futurism, and the social and spiritual implications of Artificial Intelligence. Students attend lectures, discuss readings, go on field trips, and conduct independent research in virtual space. Students will also learn to build virtual spaces by doing it themselves.

We are excited to announce that FSSP students are eligible to apply for an INT 37VR Scholarship! Scholarship application instructions will be provided upon course registration confirmation.
